Different countries celebrate New Year in different ways (5)____. The Chinese New Year is in the late January or February, the New Year in Israel is in autumn, and most Indian people celebrate New Year in spring. But in many parts of the world, 1 January is New Year's Day. This is the original date (6) _____. We know the New Year starts on 1 of January in many countries, but it starts at different times because of international time zones; for example, the New Year in Australia starts ten hours earlier than in Britain.

People all over the world have parties on 31 of December, New Year's Eve. At midnight, they hold hands and sing Auld Lang Syne. The famous song, by the Scottish poet, Robert Burns, says we should remember the past (7) _____. The Scottish have the best New Year celebrations in Britain, and New Year's Eve has a special name in Scotland, Hogmanay. People celebrate that holiday with bonfires and fireworks, and in some towns they burn an old boat to say (8) _____. Many people in Scotland go and visit their friends after midnight, early on 1 January. They believe that the first person who enters the home on New Year's Day can bring good luck. This person should carry presents: (9) _____, so the family is not hungry, poor or cold in the New Year.

People everywhere have hopes for the New Year, and some make a list of New Year resolutions: things they want to do better in future. For example, they promise to be tidier, to work harder, (10) _____. But sometimes their resolutions don't last very long!

Task 2

Read the passage about people who wear uniforms, and then decide whether the sentences 11 – 15 are TRUE or FALSE. Circle your answer.

Uniform- a type of special clothes

People who are in the same group, team or occupation often wear the same clothes so that they can be easily identified. These types of special clothes are called uniforms. Many people are proud to wear their uniform as it shows they are part of a team.

Football players all wear shorts, tops, socks and football boots that are very much the same – however, the colours are different and each team has its own design and special logo. These are so popular that millions of children all around the world like to wear the same clothes as their favourite footballers.

Workers such as fire fighters and police officers need clothes that protect them, as their work can be dangerous. It is important to wear a helmet to protect the head from injury. Other occupations such as doctors and nurses wear uniforms so that people know who they are. Uniforms also protect their own clothes and are more hygienic.

Many schoolchildren all around the world also wear uniforms. Not all pupils like this – however, school uniforms do have a lot of advantages. They make children feel a part of their school and they make everyone look the same, with no difference between rich and poor.

Finally, if you have a uniform there is one big advantage. You don't need to spend hours every morning deciding what to wear!
